Practice and research in psychotherapy: challenging partners or tango dancers?

1 OCTOBER 2017

Educatieve Academie (Antwerp, Belgium) and Department of Business Psychology, Master Program in Psychotherapy, Faculty
dr. Lazar Vrkatic, Union University

PRESENT

Practice and research in psychotherapy: challenging partners or tango dancers?

How about the interplay between mind and brain, practice and research, psychotherapy and neurobiology? What do they offer each other? Who is leading and who following?
Who's stepping on whose toes? How to dance an evidence-based tango? How can one partner challenge the other? Can they come together in a whirling tango? Explore this tension. Have this tango with us.
